

The J. Reuben Clark Law Society and the St. Thomas More Society of Sacramento, in conjunction with the LDS Business Association, invite you to attend a luncheon with the

Hon. Rodney Davis

Associate Justice, California Court of Appeal

Religious Conviction in the Practice of Law: When Faith Confronted Community in 1906 Chattanooga

Date: Tuesday, April 8, 2008
Time: 12:00 noon
Location: Zigatos
2600 Auburn Blvd., Sacramento
(In the Clarion Hotel)
Cost: $20
Menu choices: Shrimp & Avocado Salad,
Artichoke Stuffed Chicken, or
Chopped Sirloin with Mushroom Sauce

M.C.L.E. credit approved: .75 Substantive; .25 Ethics

RSVP no later than April 3, 2008 to Doug Potts at

Email: doug.potts@jud.ca.gov (preferred)
Telephone: (916) 653-0195
Fax: (916) 653-0324

Justice Rodney Davis has served as an associate justice for the California Court of Appeal, Third Appellate District since 1989. Prior to serving on the Court of Appeal, he served as a trial judge for the Sacramento Superior Court from 1985-1989, and for the Sacramento Municipal Court from 1983-1985.

Before becoming a judge, Justice Davis served under three attorneys general while working for the California Department of Justice. Under John Van de Kamp, he served as Chief of the statewide Medi-Cal Fraud Unit. Under George Deukmejian, he served as Supervising Deputy of the Medi-Cal Fraud Unit's Sacramento and San Francisco regional offices. Under Evelle Younger, he served as a prosecutor in the Criminal Division.

Justice Davis received a bachelor's degree from UC Davis in 1971, and a law degree from the University of California, Hastings College of Law in 1974. Born in 1949 in Sacramento California, Justice Davis was raised in Sacramento and Plumas counties. He is the son of former Assemblywoman Pauline Davis and former Assemblyman Lester Davis. He is married and has two sons. His community activities have included serving as vice-president of the River City Youth Soccer League, club manager of the Del Dayo Soccer Club, board member of Saint Michael's Episcopal Day School, and senior warden of Saint Michael's Episcopal Church.