

Seventh Annual J. Reuben Clark Law Society Devotional

Speaker: Elder Quentin L. Cook
When: Friday, March 13, 2009
Time: Reception – 7:00 p.m. Re-Broadcast - 7:30 p.m.
Where: Bellevue South Stake Center (formerly known as the Renton North Stake Center – adjacent to the temple)—see below for addresses and directions
Cost: No Cost

Please join us in the Seattle Chapter for the seventh annual J. Reuben Clark Law Society Devotional. The evening will begin at 7:00 p.m. with a reception at the Bellevue South Stake Center with light desert refreshment. Following the reception, Elder Quentin L. Cook, a member of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will address us by re-broadcast beginning at 7:30 p.m. Members of the BYU Management Society and the BYU Alumni Association are also invited to attend. This is a great opportunity to rub shoulders with other LDS or like-minded attorneys, business leaders, and friends.

We hope you will join us for this once-a-year event. In order to be sure we have enough refreshments, if you plan to attend please contact Robert E. Critchfield, secretary of the Seattle Chapter of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society by email at recritchfield@bvmm.com. Even if you do not respond, please come anyway and pass the word along to others who may not be on our mailing list. Many thanks and we hope to see you.

Directions: The Bellevue South Stake Center (located at 15205 SE 28th, Bellevue, WA 98007) is the Stake Center directly east of the Seattle Temple. Drive as if you were going to the Seattle Temple, but instead of turning into the Temple grounds, continue east on SE 28th Street to the Bellevue South Stake Center, located at the end of the street. You may park next to the Bellevue South Stake Center or you may park in the Temple overflow parking that is located to the North of the Seattle Temple. There is a walkway that leads from the overflow parking to the Bellevue South Stake Center.

Speaker Biography:

Elder Quentin L. Cook was sustained as a member of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on October 6, 2007. Called as a General Authority in April 1996, he served in the Second Quorum, the First Quorum, and the Presidency of the Seventy.

As a Seventy, he served in the Area Presidency in the Philippines, as president of the Pacific Islands and the North America Northwest Areas, and as Executive Director of the Missionary Department.

At the time of his call to be a General Authority of the Church, he was vice chairman of Sutter Health System. Previously, he was president and chief executive officer of a California healthcare system. Prior to that, he was a business lawyer and managing partner of a San Francisco Bay Area law firm. He has been a board member of several profit and not-for-profit corporations.

He has served the Church as a bishop, stake president and counselor in the San Francisco California Stake, and Regional Representative and Area Authority in the North America West Area. As a young man, he was a missionary in the British Mission.

He is a native of Logan, Utah, received a bachelor's degree in political science from Utah State University, and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from Stanford University.

He married Mary Gaddie on November 30, 1962. They are the parents of three children.