

J. Reuben Clark Law Society Chapter Banking Information for Online Registration and Payment for Chapter Functions

For local chapters of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society to utilize online registration and credit card payment for chapter functions, the following form must be filled out and faxed to 801-422-0401, Attn: Jeanette Befus and the chapter must establish a chapter checking account. (See Leaders Resource Guide, Chapter VII: Chapter Finances)

BYU Law School will receive the money through the online registration and the money from credit card payments will be sent back to chapters in about 30 days. Please designate your preference of wire transfer or check and complete the appropriate section. If a chapter creates a PayPal or similar account as an additional payment option, it should be arranged with that service provider for those funds to be sent directly to your chapter checking account independent of the credit card payments received and processed through BYU.
